

PRECEPTS
TRUSTEE

CORPORATE EXECUTOR & TRUSTEE SERVICES

PEACE OF MIND. PROFESSIONAL EXECUTION.

What Is a Corporate Executor?

When you make a Will, you'll need someone to carry out your wishes when you pass away. This person or organisation is called the Executor, the one who manages your estate and ensures your instructions are followed. Traditionally, people pick a family member or friend, but sometimes that can be difficult or risky.

How Does a Corporate Executor Help?

A Corporate Executor is a licensed trust company appointed to act as your Executor instead of an individual. This means a professional organisation will step in to handle the legal, financial, and administrative duties on behalf of your estate.

These responsibilities are often more involved and more consequential than many people expect.

Here's how a Corporate Executor

simplifies things for you and your loved ones:

1 Takes care of the hard stuff

They manage complex tasks like applying for probate, collecting and valuing assets, settling debts and taxes, and distributing your estate according to your Will.

2 Professional and neutral

As a MAS-regulated company, they offer objective decision-making and structured processes, reducing the risk of family disputes or mistakes.

3 Continuity and reliability

Unlike an individual who might be too busy, unwell, or unsure how to proceed, a Corporate Executor has the expertise and resources to complete the job professionally, even over years.

4 Useful in tricky situations

When there's no clear family choice, beneficiaries live overseas, or potential conflicts might arise, a Corporate Executor brings calm and order to the process.

In short, appointing a Corporate Executor means your estate isn't left to chance — it's handled by a professional team focused on fulfilling your wishes clearly, fairly and efficiently.

How a Corporate Executor Helps

Everything is handled systematically and professionally.

	Individual	Corporate
Objectivity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Have personal knowledge, relationships and familiarity with the family dynamics, which may give rise to potential conflicts of interests. Usually accepted based on personal relationships or favours. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Independent of family dynamics, objectivity in decision-making. Higher level of expectation on fiduciary duty.
Expertise	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lack of professional expertise can pose challenges in handling complex Estate matters. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Dedicated expertise in Estate and Trust administration arising from day-to-day handling of past and existing cases. Structured approach to administering Estates and Trusts, ensuring compliance with regulations and best practices.
Succession Planning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A change requires a deed of appointment and transfer of the assets to the new Executor or Trustee. This can be cumbersome. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If directors or employees of the corporate Trustee change, the corporate Trustee remains the same legal entity. There is no need to transfer assets to another entity.
Liability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Responsible for all Estate/Trust affairs and can be held personally liable for any errors or breaches. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A company is a separate legal entity, and can be held accountable in court, while its directors have limited personal liability.
Continuity & Perpetuity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Limited by age, health or changes. May resign, become incapacitated and disrupt the administration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Advantage of continuity and perpetuity. Consistent management of the Estate/Trust assets over the long term.
Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Zero to low fees, especially if a family member or a close friend may serve without compensation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ongoing annual fees based on a percentage of the Estate/Trust assets.

When is a Corporate Executor Especially Useful?

A Corporate Executor is often chosen when:

There is no suitable family member to appoint

Beneficiaries may disagree or have strained relationships

Assets or family members are overseas

The estate is complex or involves trusts

You want certainty and professionalism

Why Appoint a Corporate Executor in Advance?

✓
Clear fees and transparency

✓
Reduced burden on family and friends

✓
Professional expertise and compliance

✓
Greater certainty that your wishes are followed

Planning ahead means fewer complications later.

LET PRECEPTS TRUSTEE SERVE AS YOUR CORPORATE EXECUTOR & TRUSTEE

► Let Professionals Carry Out Your Wishes

Appointing a Corporate Executor is not about a lack of trust — it's about protecting your loved ones and ensuring your legacy is handled properly.

► Ensure Peace of Mind with Professional Execution

When the time comes, your loved ones should be focusing on healing — not paperwork, legal processes, or difficult decisions.

By appointing a Corporate Executor, you ensure that your estate is handled professionally, fairly, and exactly according to your wishes.

► Planning to write or written a Will?

You can appoint a Corporate Executor at the same time — or update your existing Will to include one.

Speak to us about appointing a Corporate Executor today.

Contact us for more details:

📍 10 Anson Road, International Plaza, #06-17, Singapore 079903

🌐 www.preceptsgroup.com

☎ +65 6221 8633

✉ contactus@preceptsgroup.com